Our Challenge

Dear friends,

(This reflection is on the readings for the “Mass during the Day” on Easter Sunday. Readings at the Easter Vigil are different ones.)

The sermon of Peter in the tenth chapter of the Acts of the Apostles contains a reminder of how Jesus lived his life. “He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.” Such a life reflects the goodness and love of God. Such a life will conquer death and reveal God’s ongoing drama of redemption. St. Paul admonished the earliest Christian Church in Colossae to set their hearts on the things above. The risen Christ had been elevated to the eternal realm and was seated at the right hand of God. The true believer has been raised with Christ and should give evidence of an elevated life. Jesus’ empty tomb was first reported by Mary Magdalene. Peter and John then ran to the burial place to see what might have happened. John arrived first, but feared to go into the tomb. Peter arrived and entered the tomb. The folded grave clothes announced that Jesus was not dead, but alive. Easter can be largely misunderstood. Our commemoration of the resurrection of Jesus is widely seen, both in the Church and in the world, as a celebration of life after death or the immortality of the soul. But the New Testament claim is that we have already been raised with Christ. In Christ, we are free to live above the powers of sin and death. None of us actually saw the empty tomb of Jesus. Yet we have come to believe, with those first disciples, that Christ has been raised from the dead and that we have been raised with him. Knowing that God is a God of the living rather than a God of the dead helps us see that resurrection is all about us. We see life conquering death in the cycles of nature, in the birth of children, in the recovery of health, and in the renewal of hope. Easter is not limited to one event in history or to one day in the year. We have been raised with Christ, and this is true every day!

Happy Easter!

Love and prayers,
Father Randy

Prayer for Healing During the Coronavirus Crisis

Jesus Christ, you traveled through towns and villages "curing every disease and illness." At your command, the sick were made well. Come to our aid now, in the midst of the global spread of the coronavirus, that we may experience your healing love. Heal those who are sick with the virus. May they regain their strength and health through quality medical care. Heal us from our fear, which prevents nations from working together and neighbors from helping one another. Heal us from our pride, which can make us claim invulnerability to a disease that knows no borders.

Jesus Christ, healer of all, stay by our side in this time of uncertainty and sadness. Be with those who have died from the virus. May they be at rest with you in your eternal peace. Be with the families of those who are sick or have died. As they worry and grieve, defend them from illness and despair. May they know your peace.

WORD OF LIFE

"Those who die in God's grace and friendship live forever with Christ. Heaven is not an abstract idea, but a true and lasting relationship with God that is beyond all earthly description and understanding. We look forward to the resurrection of the dead and everlasting life by preparing now, in hope, for our passage from this life into eternal life."

On-line Baptism Seminars are in the works, as is the First Communion Retreat program for parents and our First Communion candidates. So....stay tuned as we continue to adjust to our new reality, still in hopes that it will be short-lived!

At our website, there is a link to instructions to join these conference calls.

Mass Intentions. Private Mass is being offered daily by Fr. Ryan or Fr. Randy for all our parishioners and for the intentions as published in our bulletin. If an intention for a scheduled Mass has been moved a day or so in either direction from the requested date, those who requested the intention will be notified.

Sunday Mass at Aloysius: Find our Mass posted at our Website and Facebook pages for viewing anytime by Sunday of that week.

Audio Recordings of Our Sunday Homilies. Listen to the homilies of both Father Randy and Father Ryan, for both last Sunday and this coming Sunday, posted at our website.

Weekday Mass. Bishop Duca's private weekday Masses are available for viewing at the diocese's Catholic TV channel 15 and on its YouTube channel: <http://www.catholiclifetv.org/televised-liturgy/today-s-mass>. Additionally, a number of our other local priests and parishes were pre-equipped or have been able to become equipped to live-stream regularly scheduled private Masses and other devotions via YouTube channels or other technology, and they are able to do so without the 'close-quarters' technical assistance of others.
